

GPS – Graduate & Postdoctoral Studies

GRADUATE FUNDING

Fulbright Awards for American students

- Funding for American graduate students in their first year at McGill
- Applications for 2019-2020 academic year accepted until October 9, 2018

Fulbright enrolment awards are intended for American students who plan to enroll in a graduate program at a Canadian university. The student must seek admission at the same time as they apply for a Fulbright award. The Traditional Fulbright Canada award would support the first nine months of the student's graduate degree.

For eligibility requirements and application details, please visit the Fulbright website.

For awards to be taken up in the 2019-2020 academic year, the competition will close on October 9, 2018 at 5:00pm EST.

For more information, please visit the Fulbright website