Dear Student,

Would you like to present your disruptive ideas to world leaders such as Christine Lagarde, International Monetary Fund, Dominic Barton, McKinsey & Co., Professor Niall Ferguson, Harvard University and Jack Ma, Alibaba.com?

Discuss your ideas with the global elite, create an impact, win CHF 30,000, and enjoy an all-expenses-covered trip to Switzerland. Seize the opportunity and qualify as one of 200 “Leaders of Tomorrow” for the 48th St. Gallen Symposium (www.symposium.org) by competing for the St. Gallen Wings of Excellence Award.

Highlights include:

- Participation as “Leader of Tomorrow” in a global forum
- Meet 600 top managers, entrepreneurs, politicians and scientists from more than 50 nations
- Share your ideas with the symposium’s global audience
- Small and intimate gatherings with world leaders, exclusively for the Leaders of Tomorrow
- Meet 200 of the world’s brightest young minds from around the world and become a member of a global community
- All expenses paid (travel, board and lodging)
- Broad media coverage

The 48th St. Gallen Symposium will be held from 2–4 May 2018 at the University of St. Gallen, Switzerland, under the topic “Beyond the end of work”. The St. Gallen Wings of Excellence Award is the world’s most prestigious essay competition of its kind giving you the extraordinary opportunity to share your voice and opinion with some of the world’s most influential leaders and decision makers.

To find out more, register now for an information session to be held in the James Administration Building (room 301) on Friday, November 24, 2017 from 12:00- 1:00pm.

Have a look at the competition question and requirements at www.symp.sg/competition, and remember to submit your essay no later than 1 February 2018.

We look forward to hopefully welcoming you in May 2018 in Switzerland!

With best regards,
