Japan Society for the Promotion of Science Postdoctoral Fellowships

- Postdoctoral fellowship opportunity for Canadian citizens and permanent residents
- Deadline to apply: 1 February 2021

The Japan Society for the Promotion of Science (JSPS) has established the JSPS Postdoctoral Fellowships for Foreign Researchers. A limited number of promising early-career researchers are given the opportunity to conduct research in Japanese universities and in designated research institutions and laboratories. NSERC is responsible for recommending Canadian nominees for JSPS Postdoctoral Fellowships.

To be considered eligible for support, as of the application deadline date, the applicant must:

- be a Canadian citizen or a permanent resident of Canada;
- not have Japanese nationality or be a permanent resident of Japan;
- hold or expect to hold a doctorate degree in one of the fields of research that NSERC supports prior to the proposed start date of the postdoctoral fellowship;
- not hold, or have held, any other JSPS Postdoctoral fellowship.

In addition:

- The applicant must have completed all requirements of their first doctoral degree no more than six years before the application deadline.

Interested students and fellows should contact schol@nserc-crsng.gc.ca to obtain the application form and instructions. The deadline to apply is 1 February 2021.
