

If you like crossword puzzles, you may like anacrostics even better.

1. Use the clues to find the answers, then enter the letters into the appropriate spot to spell out the message.
2. As the message becomes clearer, determine missing words and use those letters to help answer the remaining clues.
3. The first letter of each answer will spell out a phrase related to the message.

Try it alone or in groups, but the goal is to have fun!
